Glebe Singers present
'Singing in the Reign'
A Concert to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of HM Queen Elizabeth II
St Mary's Church, Snettisham, Norfolk
Saturday, 26th May 2012, 7.00pm

Glebe Singers is to celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee by performing a concert at St Mary's Church, Snettisham in Norfolk, on Saturday, 26th May. Entitled 'Singing in the Reign', the concert will be in aid of the Norfolk Hospice Tapping House, which H.M. Queen has supported, making official visits to the Hospice whose work with people who have life limiting illnesses is currently based in Snettisham.

'Singing in the Reign' will feature music chosen to reflect the Queen's reign by a wide range of composers. This will include music from the the different areas of the United Kingdom and the Commonwealth, as well as items connected to various times and events from the past 60 years, all with a celebratory feel.

'We are delighted and proud to have been invited to perform this concert on this occasion,' commented David Scoffield, Chairman of the Glebe Singers. 'The choir is looking forward to visiting this beautiful church and performing at this time of celebration for the country.'

Tickets for the concert (£7.50 adults, £2 children under 16) are available from St Mary's Church, Snettisham; the Norfolk Hospice Tapping House (tel. 01485 542891); from the choir's website (www.glebesingers.co.uk) or at the door.
